the author grew up in south eastern pa graduated from high school in 1950 and after several part times jobs he completed a course at temple u he found a job with one of this country s first foreign car dealerships in exton pa later married and self employed for ten years now with three children both the author and his wife were tired of the cold winters sold their business and moved to the florida keys the keys then being very laid back sparsely populated and warm all year around was deeply appreciated after buying a restaurant bar with a marina in key largo the author got to meet all sorts of people people of the nature he had never experienced actually even at the age of 37 i would feel safe in saying i grew up in the keys just in a manner of speaking there were all sorts of experiences here many unexpected none really harmful but amusing and many times hilarious it just was the character and nature of the residents and those passing through the author having actually participated or witnessed some of these events that would likely never happen on the mainland life in the keys was anything but dull and it sure was different sometimes more like an adventure
